

A Child's Dream of a Star is a short story written by English author Charles Dickens (1812-1870). First published in 1836, it is a tale full of melancholy. It is centered on a child who loses her sister and finds a sort of relief looking at the star which they were used to watch together. This edition also contains the beautiful biography of Charles Dickens written by English writer Gilbert K. Chesterton (1874-1936) in 1906.
