

Do you want a good divorce? It is possible! How to have a good divorce and a great life afterwards! ??? A Short Guide to a Happy Divorce by acclaimed author Michael Lister Divorce is often difficult, even traumaticâ€”more so than the death of a spouse sometimes, but it doesnâ€™t have to be, or doesnâ€™t have to stay that way. We donâ€™t have to get stuck in the more negative aspects of uncoupling, that downward spiral of defeatism that lands us in despondency and despair. The happiness I refer to is neither shallow nor easy. Itâ€™s an earned, deep abiding joy that remains because of a certain approach, an honoring of an honorable process. What Iâ€™m offering here is not easy or automatic, but the result of noble intentions, strong resolve, and a heroic commitment to living in love by embracing what is, processing pain, and practicing true careâ€”of ourselves, our partners, and especially our children. Divorce doesnâ€™t have to be death. It doesnâ€™t even have to be an end. If approached the right way it can be a transitionâ€”one filled with opportunity and hope. Nothing is permanent. All of lifeâ€”and relationshipsâ€”are in perpetual states of transition and transformation. Divorce can be experienced this same way. Not only does divorce not have to be an endâ€”even of the relationship itselfâ€”but it also can most certainly be a beginning. A new beginning filled with incredible and heretofore unimagined possibilities and opportunities. Divorce doesnâ€™t have to be bad. Divorce can be good. A marriage that ends in divorce isnâ€™t necessarily a failure. A marriage that doesnâ€™t end in divorce isnâ€™t necessarily a success. A good divorce is possible. You can have one. Hereâ€™s how the author and his ex-wife did. ??? â€œMichael Lister is a writer of rare power and compassion.â€• Sean Chercover. IF YOU WANT A GOOD DIVORCE AND A HAPPY ENDINGâ€”A SHORT GUIDE TO A HAPPY DIVORCE IS FOR YOU!
