

The greatest part about meeting your soul mate is preparing for the day when you two will become one. The journey to the altar can seem like it's a million miles away and for Chanae and Kalil that distance might not be such a longshot. New parents Chanae and Kalil have just been blessed with their little prince Khalid so it's only right that their next big step be marriage but everything is not picture perfect as it may seem. There are still people who don't believe Chanae and Kalil deserve to be happy and they'll stop at nothing to tear them apart. The fact that there are people from both their pasts trying to break their bond leads the happy couple to take hard looks at themselves and question everything they've come to know and love about one another; even second-guessing the idea of marriage. Although the roles have been altered and they're still trying to make it down the aisle, will Chanae meet Kalil at the altar or will she run away forever and never come back.
