Though they have been best friends and have both loved Mary all of their lives, they are surprised to find out that they each intend to officially propose this Christmas. As they fight with each other and the storm, God reveals His plan and they find peace. Does God's plan include Mary for either of them? How is it revealed? BOOK THREE: THE RESCUE: Mary's father, Eli, and Jonathan's mother, Beth, both find Christmas Eve to be a trying time since the passing of their spouses. Couple their sorrow with the strain of knowing their adult children are traveling in the worst storm they've seen in years, and they discover how nice it is to have each other for support. After trying to distract themselves from worry, and realizing that romantic feelings for each other are blooming, they decide to brave the storm and look for their children together.
