

Det. Roland March is a homicide cop on his way out. But when hes the only one at a crime scene to find evidence of a missing female victim, hes given one last chance to prove himself. Before he can crack the case, hes transferred to a new one that has grabbed the spotlight--the disappearance of a famous Houston evangelists teen daughter. With the help of a youth pastor with a guilty conscience who navigates the world of church and faith, March is determined to find the missing girls while proving hes still one of Houstons best detectives.
