

Gothic City Press delves into the darker side of faith with a collection of short stories from authors in the United States, Ireland, United Kingdom, and Australia. Behind closed doors the prelate leads her followers in the sacred rites, and all have given of themselves to fulfill the tenants of the faith. Submission is required. Only those who are wholly giving to the cause will be deserving of elevation. Or so the chanting says. But there is another way: Just fake it like the rest of the world. The populace is easily swayed or parted with their money. They'll even sing your praises if you follow the advice of your trusted, albeit shady, public relations officer.
