

At Wild Bluff everything is going great for Davis and Ryan, but Duff's heart attack throws the ranch into a tailspin, leaving Davis wondering if he can stay at Wild Bluff. Everything calms down for a while, but another hitch is thrown into the works, forcing the guys to scramble. Marshal is finally coming into his own after healing from the injuries Craig inflicted on him. He's taken on more responsibility running the operations, but when disaster strikes, he blames himself for not being in the field. Tensions run high when it looks like one of their own is lost. Will they come together or be split apart? One life hangs in the balance as the future of Wild Bluff is put to the test.
