

Book 3 in the rockstar series, Lost In Oblivion. Only one woman has ever refused him and she's the only one he wants. Now that he's beyond successful with his band Oblivion, lead singer Simon Kagan is enjoying his all-access pass to the groupie train. After getting more fists in the ribs than hugs growing up, he discovers having a warm female in his bed is an easy way to escape the loneliness. Until Margo. From the moment he met the classy, buttoned-up violinist, he knew she was different. After an amazing night in the studio, he's finally connected with someone on a deeper level only to have her walk away without a backward glance. As a member of the Boston Symphony orchestra, Margo Reece's life revolves around the regimented structure of a second chair violinist. She walked away from Simon because that's what she was supposed to do. And Margo always does what she's supposed to. Until being with Simon becomes a choice she never thought she'd have to make. If it's not already too late. This book has a cliffhanger.
