

BRYCE HOLMES, left his home in Pennsylvania at the age of twenty after being accused and then exonerated of a crime he didn't commit. Sixteen years later, he is coerced by his siblings to return to the place of his birth to help celebrate his parents' fiftieth anniversary. He's become a fabulously wealthy man during his self-imposed exile and returns in his private plane for the celebration, dreading the week ahead of him. He's made his fortune in Europe and longs to return there as soon as possible. PAIGE CONNERY, the little girl who grew up in the house next door to Bryce, fell in love with him at the age of ten, but he regarded her as a young nuisance who followed him everywhere much to his chagrin. She is a math teacher and has been engaged twice, but never married. When she learns of his arrival, she is determined to win his heart since they're both adults. She has one week to do it before he disappears from her life again. Paige's best friend, ANASTASIA TOLOPOS, is a teacher and she and Paige take month-long trips during their summer breaks. This year, they're going to Greece because Anastasia is determined to find a Greek husband and relinquish her flirty, sleep-with-anyone ways to settle down and have children. She meets DRAKE HOLMES, Bryce's younger brother and pro football player, and they begin a torrid affair. Anastasia is introduced to Bryce's best friend, NICO PETROS, a billionaire Greek shipping magnet, and falls hopelessly in love with him. Will BRYCE and NICO, two handsome, wealthy, confirmed bachelors, who spent years cavorting across Europe with the most beautiful women in the world, but never married, succumb to the charms of two high-school teachers from Pennsylvania? If so, will PAIGE and ANASTASIA, be able to adapt to the lifestyle of the rich and famous? She'd a tear, laugh-out-loud and fall in love with these complicated and fascinating people as they search for happiness at home and abroad. Enjoy the side stories of other interesting characters in this saga of hopes, dreams, lust and love.
