

Ms. Fribergs Rebel Angels just continues to get better and better. I completely enjoyed this one (Echoes and Embers) and so will you! â€” Trang, Fallen Angels Reviews 5 stars! Alyssa is a Rebel Angel, semi-Fallen, like Gideon before her. Cursed by her own words, she is unable to distinguish truth from liesâ€”even her own. She has sworn to protect her ward Rosalind from the forces of evil. But without discernment, how will Alyssa identify friend from foe? Prince Sariel of the Angelic Order of Grigori, the oldest and most powerful of all angelic beings, has endured thousands of years of celibacy for the sins of his race. Itâ€™s his duty to determine if Rosalind is a Nephilim and perhaps destroy her. When Sariel comes for Alyssaâ€™s ward, more than the girlâ€™s fate hangs in the balance. Never before has he felt such dark desire as Alyssa stirs in him. The Daughters of Man are forbidden Sarielâ€™but is Rebel Angel Alyssa? Note to Reader: This book contains detailed descriptions of sizzling passion only suitable for mature readers. From Cyndi: Imagine how complicated life would be if you honestly believed your own lies. Thatâ€™s what happens to Alyssa. Her curse creates an environment where whatever she says becomes realityâ€”but only in her own mind. My exploration of rebellious angels continues in this book. However, itâ€™s completely different than Rage and Redemption. I love Historical romance and this one takes place in medieval England. Still, it wouldnâ€™t be a Cyndi Friberg novel without some sort of paranormal twist. So Iâ€™ve brought you scheming demons, flaming swords, and all sort of things that scurry away from the Light. I hope youâ€™ll find the story as much fun to read as it was to write. Enjoy!
