

An innocent child named Brock Talon longs for the Jehovahs Witness paradise, but in time finds it isnt all its cracked up to be. With Armageddon ever looming, his life becomes an endless stream of restrictions and mandated works, harsh discipline and conditional relationships. Join Brocks struggle with apostasy and persecution, sanctioned abuse and God-like elders. Learn with him about his faiths built-in sexual dysfunction and an eerily business-like design, as well as its dubious origin, repeated failed prophecy, fixation on demons, and the curious anointed ones. Will Brock ignore his eye-opening discoveries, or will he act and lose everything? This story, both humorous and tragic, is about one mans personal pilgrimage through the dystopian world of the Watch Tower Bible and Tract Society. Along with millions like him, will Brock be able to safely make his escape from paradise?
