

Virginia Beckett had always known she'd run the family business. Ivy League degrees and a flawless pedigree prepared her for it. So when businessman Aaron Winston buys a stake in her company and threatens to launch a takeover, she plans to fight him off with every Wall Street lawyer she can buy. Fight his corporate advances, that is. His personal ones, she's not so sure about. Aaron Winston plays hardball. How else could an orphan from the Bronx end up with a successful business and boast-worthy bank account? He doesn't plan on letting one corporate princess's disdain for his methods get in the way of the deal, no matter how sexy she is. Although he wouldn't mind removing that silver spoon and putting her luscious mouth to better use. When a dead body ups the ante in their corporate war, Aaron and Virginia join forces in a trek that leads the unlikely lovers from fast-paced Manhattan to bucolic Connecticut to an isolated island off the coast of Oregon. Through it all, they learn nothing is more deadly than desire. A Romantic® erotic romance from Ellora's Cave
