

Jovi felt destined to be haunted by her past and that her future was all too uncertain. Sheâ€™d spent her entire life in New York City and would never have imagined moving to small-town Arkansas. But there she was. In the middle of nowhere, living with family members she had never known. And to top it off, the now normal life she was beginning to live began revealing how disturbing and traumatic the last four years had really been. Her plan was simply to keep her head down until she could sort everything out. Life in New York left her with a lot of baggage and she had no intention of looking for a boyfriend while dealing with the healing process. She definitely wasnâ€™t trying to fall for the gorgeous, out-of-her-league, off-limits guy who happened to be her new neighbor. So much for intentions.
