

Are you a race fan with a passion for science fiction? Then, strap yourself into the cockpit and follow along as John C. Bodin and Ron Collins take you on four hot laps around the Indy 500s past and future. In Neighbors on Gasoline Alley - A race team from Betelguese enters the Indy 500 as a gesture of peace, and runs into a mysterious problem. What's a fellow race crew to do but lend a helping hand? In Speeding - Famous chronumentary director Connor Singh and his best friend Li-liang Novikoff will go to any length necessary to capture the dramatic secrets of one of the most horrific accidents in Indy history, as they return to 1964 to record the events leading up to the crash that took the lives of Eddie Sachs and Dave MacDonald. In Oh-oh! - It's 1969 and a shape shifting race of aliens from Tau Ceti are out to rig the most wagered upon event in the known universe. It's up to an undercover vice cop from outta this world to stake out the Snake Pit, find a way to stop them, and avoid the fickle fate of bad fortune himself. In The Day the Track Stood Still - Drivers have always had special relationships with their cars, but in the future this may go a little further than Buddy might have expected. He's about to find out how far he can stretch his relationship when the Brada come to town with big plans to win the 500, and with it take home something bigger than the Borg-Warner trophy.
