

Ninguém sabe quem é Banksy, o artista do stencil e do spray que tem deixado a marca de sua irreverência em paredes de cidades do mundo inteiro, de Londres a Palestina. Sabe-se apenas que teria nascido em Bristol, no sul da Inglaterra, onde iniciou suas atividades. A obra de Banksy, porém, é inconfundível: ratos de guarda-chuva, macacos ameaçando dominar o mundo, inusitados sinais de trânsito e comentários mordazes sobre a sociedade contemporânea, o consumismo, as guerras e o conformismo. Sua arte em grafite ganhou fama em toda parte, e amplamente reproduzida pela internet e já foi vendida por mais de 50 mil libras em leilões. Guerra e spray reúne o melhor de seus trabalhos e expõe alguns de seus pensamentos nas palavras do próprio Banksy. Além das obras criadas para as ruas, o livro inclui também intervenções que o artista fez em locais privados, como museus de Nova York e o zoológico de Barcelona.
