

Brenna MacAlpin is leader of her clan, and a powerful woman in Scotland, but when she faces Morgan Grey, known throughout her land as The Queens Savage, a fierce English warrior who rides in defense of his queen, she is willing to fight him to the death. Morgan Grey is forced to act on his queens scheme to unite the families through marriage, even though his unwilling partner would rather plant a knife in his back than give in to these unsettling feelings she is experiencing in his arms. ...a talented author who never disappoints... -- Romantic Times
