

Book Three in the Highland Wars series. The epic battle continues! After battling for their lives in the Highland War Games, Ceana MacRae and Macrath Mor were married and named Prince and Princess of Sitheil. But even after accepting their crowns, they are not out of the woods. Danger lurks at every turn. They've vowed to take down the mighty and treacherous council only to unearth an even deadlier secret: The Corridor of the Ancients, where their enemy Lady Beatrice has kept a mysterious prisoner and tortured countless victims. Four armies have converged upon their castle and it would seem that they not only have to fight the royal council but hordes more. They must prove their worth to their king, thwart the many plots set up against them and see their enemies destroyed. With their past demons still chasing them and their adversaries stopping at nothing to see them crushed, the final battle for Sitheil will prove to be a challenge not only for their reign, but also for their love. Will Ceana and Macrath win the war? Can their love survive what destiny has in store for them?
