Method 1. Weaving Reed Baskets. Make the base of the basket. You'll need to lay out 5 reeds parallel to one another, with about 3/8ths of a space between them. Bend the reeds. Split a center spoke. Weave the basket. Foot the base. Continue weaving. Pack the base. Finish the top of the basket. It is a joy to harvest your own willow from the countryside to make such baskets; and there are many types out there. However, not all Willow is suitable for basket . I started making baskets when I was in college at the University of Georgia back in the early 's. While working at the bookstore on campus I found a book on . Basket weaving is the process of weaving or sewing pliable materials into two- or three dimensional artefacts, such as mats or containers. Craftspeople and artists specialised in making baskets are usually referred.

I used brown paper strips to make the baskets. At first, you have to cut the papers into strips of inch width. Then fold them into half inch width and keep the. It's so simple to roll paper tubes out of newspaper and then weave the tubes into a basket. You can bet I will be making plenty of these faux wicker baskets for.

Revered as it is, the intricate art of basket making can be quite the time- consuming little craft. However, if you have an enormous stash of old.
