

Life is definitely coming together for Marcella Tartaglia-New York City, an exciting publishing career with a major lifestyle magazine, the BIG promotion. Shes on assignment in England and open to a weekend fling, especially when the perfect hottie roars up on his motorcycle outside the church at her ex-bosss wedding. Too bad William dont do flings. The Reverend William Stafford is a blue-blooded country vicar in want of a wife and a real danger to a woman like Marcella who cant afford to lose her heart in England when all her dreams are waiting an ocean away. Still, Marcella and William explore their mutual attraction only to realize their lives are headed in different directions. Marcella hails from a small ethnic neighborhood with a determination to work her way to the top of her profession in Americas most exciting city. And although the Honorable William John Anthony Grafton Stafford, being the third son of an English viscount, comes from a titled British family, hes chosen the simple life as a vicar of a small parish in a Cotswold village. A weekend isnt nearly long enough to resolve a possible future together. All they know is that theyre really starting to feel something....
