

The hippest, funniest, internet science fiction serial is NOW available on Kindle! Space. Spies. And some really bad coffee. Called "a witty sardonic space adventure that's a lot of fun to read - self aware with plenty of pop culture reflections" Intergalactic Espionage For Idiots (Previously published as Stark Nova) is an episodic serial in the tradition of a classic adventure cliffhanger. It's James Bond meets Stephanie Plum, on an outer-space backdrop worthy of Men in Black, and that's just a suggestion of what you have in store! So grab your coffee mug and settle in to begin the adventure with Intergalactic Espionage For Idiots : Episode Six. "Chris Mark is well on his way to being a rival to Robert Heinlein." "Too much fun." "Want more, don't want this high to end." "Intergalactic Espionage For Idiots is a mandatory MUST READ for anyone who wants to inject fun into their Sci-Fi book club." EPISODE SIX DESCRIPTION: It has been three months since the incident on the asteroid and Katherine Hunt now finds herself learning the ropes of becoming an intergalactic agent as she deals with the terrors on the surface of a burning world in a desperate mission against the clock. What new mystery will Katherine uncover back at Omacron? Grab your coffee mug and paradox pets! It's time to return to the universe of Intergalactic Espionage For Idiots!
