

Build Your Foundation: Know the Reasons, Show Your Skill, & Beat the Competition [Book 1 of 3 of the Interview Action Series - Making Interviews Work For You!] If you're looking for a job, you want things to go smoothly, right? You want to do the work it takes to get your name out there and you want some good responses back. But what if you're not sure about the next step to take? What if you've been out of the job market for more than five years, employed or not? What if you've tried over and over again and just can't seem to get a phone call? It's tough. This whole interviewing process is a complex, cold, and frustrating experience that most people can't stand. This is exactly the reason I decided to tackle it, systematize it, and bring it to you. I'm coming to you with career development tools, interview tips, and job grabbing processes to help you get the interview flow down pat. And don't worry, this is not PhD level confusing tactics (though there are ninja-nuggets of goodness inside). This is simple, straightforward, and practical techniques for the following people: * In a job that no longer satisfies you * Never had a job before * Haven't looked for a new job in over 5 years * Are an expert and are looking for 5-10% improvement tips I took an experimenters role when researching this Interview Action series of books. Yes, I made cold-calls to recruiters to get advice. Yes, I applied for positions I was not qualified for (and still got the interviews). Yes, I used my years of psychometric testing data and surveys from richardstep.com to refine my approaches. And yes, you will get at least 1 big ah-ha from this series of books that will make a difference in your interview mastery skill-set. You just have to be willing to look for it. This series of books will help you prepare for, find, get, and win at the interviewing process to make getting your next job that much more attainable. Think of it as personal interview training on your favorite ereader device. Here is a breakdown of what Book 1: Build Your Foundation will do for you: * Know the reasons: This interview mindset preparation section will help destroy the fear of the unknown and get you confidently ready to start your interviewing journey. * Show Your Skills: Here you'll align everything you've ever done with what matters most to interviewers. Show what you've got and the value you will add. * Beat The Competition: The market is a snarling bear and if you don't figure out how to beat the competition, you'll be just another rejection email in a company's huge pile of submissions. If you're ready to get up and learn some new interview methods, get what works best for you, and start applying it to the interview process, then let's go. It's time to start making interviews work for you!
