

LIFE IN ALL ITS BITTERSWEET BEAUTY What do a dying Baby Boomer, an aging couple, a tattered angel, a struggling small town and a booming mega-church have in common? They're all part of the tapestry of true life that journalist John Luciew chronicles in his inspiring and empowering new book, Life, Death & Everything in Between. As the title implies, this book has everything. It whisks the reader along on a roller coaster of emotions and experiences. You'll discover the triumph in death, feel love's bittersweet perseverance over the passage of time, experience a small town yearning for a fading American idyllic and become wrapped in the warm embrace of a new, come-as-you-are spiritual enterprise that's redefining modern worship. Simply put, you won't be the same once you've experienced these true tales of ordinary life in extraordinary times. With a sharp eye for people, places and voice, Luciew finds dignity in death, youth in old age, heartache in utopia and new lessons in old religion. This is as real as it gets, and the struggles, yearnings and triumphs experienced here will dwell deep in the heart. Come, take the journey. A one-of-a-kind reading experience that's not to be missed! This e-book single title contains approx. 15,000 words.
