

One of a series, this guidebook in Spanish aims to bring London to life with information on every significant location, building, museum and gallery, as well as major shops, hotels and restaurants. In addition, the book contains specially commissioned 3-D aerial maps and diagrams, visual guides to currency, tickets and communication systems. The guide is organized area by area to help travellers to make the most of their stay. It provides up to 2000 illustrations and annotated 3-D maps which show every major attraction. Unique cutaways enable the traveller to visit museums and galleries without having to buy other guides. An illustrated survival guide is also provided, which supplies essential practical information and an in-depth transport section is supplied to make travel easy.
