

Larken is graduate engineering student who doesn't believe in fairy tales. That all changes when she comes home for the summer. Her genius father shows her a watch that can send a person to another dimension, disguising his or her appearance. She accidentally wears the watch and ends up in another dimension disguised as a beautiful fitness instructor named Lindsey. While she gets familiar with her new surroundings she meets Jason and they instantly fall in love. Just when she thinks that everything seems perfect in their relationship, she realizes that Jason may actually be in love with Lindsey and not Larken, that mysterious men in black suits are hunting for her and that she needs to find a way back home before it's too late. In the middle of all the adventures that happen to Larken and Jason, they need to understand if two people from different dimensions can be together.
