

A steamy Victorian tale with a butler, a maid and two upper class gentlemen in need of entertainment "She still looks a bit red to me," Sir Henry said. "I think you should loosen her dress. Let her get some air." When new maid Rosie is summoned to the drawing room to see the master of the house, Mr. Osbourne, and his friend, Sir Henry, she fears she may be in trouble. Has her work not been up to the exacting standards of the household? But it is not the standard of her work that will get her into trouble but her own reaction to their commands as her innocent eyes are opened to the pleasures of the flesh and the excitement of their humiliating games and shameful demands. This is a sizzling hot short story of 6,000 words unsuitable for those under 18
