

Charles Brahm is a butler in a rich household. He has grown up here, and it is a dream come true to actually make it to the role of butler. But then he realizes he wants more than that. He wants to be married. To be a husband. To be the man of the house. Fanny is a young woman that drifts. She goes from one job to another, without a lot of stock in any one place, until she realizes she wants to settle down for good. When she marries Charles she thinks her wandering days are over, but that's just the beginning of her struggle. Charles is too used to being a butler to realize he isn't treating Fanny as a husband should, and she is tired of it. Will he be able to set his habits aside and give her the love she needs? Will she be able to settle down and commit to a life with him? *This is a MOB short story and includes 20 western, historical, Christian, clean, MOB short stories by Christian Michael.*
