

She thought shed never be free of the nightmares of her past... Maggie's life had been turned upside down by tragedy and she had escaped the demons of her past to start a new life. But those demons still haunted her nightmares and she lived in fear that shed never be free of them. Now she found herself the wife of Jacob Shaw, a kind, handsome man who has given her calm in her stormy life and made her feel safe and loved. Jacob gave her a reason to hope again. Jacob didn't know what Maggie had been through, and didn't want to push her to talk about it. He was more focused on the future and starting their new life together. At first he'd been nervous about sending for a mail order bride, but after meeting Maggie, he was certain that she was the woman God had chosen to be his wife. But his new wife has secrets that threaten to tear apart the new life they're building and when Maggie's past finally catches up to her and her life is in danger, she hopes that Jacob can forgive her for the secrets she's kept.
