

“You have a gift!” Mary was told again and again. What was Mary’s gift? How did it grow and multiply? How did it come back to her? Based on Mary’s own stories author Dorothy Roberts Cline introduces us to Alaska’s remarkable Mary Epperson. Discover surprising answers to those questions as Mary leaves behind her friends and family in California, and with two young children follows her husband to an Alaskan homestead. Learn how one tiny woman with a gift transforms an entire community.
