

I was a sex and prostitute addict for over 10 years. It all started back in the mid 1990s when I was a student. I was a young guy who had enormous fears approaching and getting women. My lack of sexual gratification led me to go to a prostitute. Gradually over the years my visits to prostitutes became more and more frequent. Eventually I realised that my life had become out of control. I went to a therapist and told her everything. In the first years of my recovery I kept a blog charting my progress and my experiences. This book is based on a selection of blog articles where I have recorder my memoirs. There are stories of crazy experiences in dodgy red-light districts, stories of me leading a double life, stories of the struggles my girlfriend at the time went through when she discovered the truth about me. Through this book I want to reach out to people and tell them that they are not alone. Recovery is possible.
