

This patriotic kit teaches children about the history, values and etiquette behind the American flag, while giving them their own flag to cherish, respect and proudly display. Every day, children see the American flag waving magnificently over their homes, streets, and schools. The ultimate symbol of American patriotism, the flag has a rich history and represents many values. This kit includes a fully illustrated book that uses simple and friendly dialogue to teach children about the story of our flag, what it represents, where people hang it, proper flag etiquette, and how it has changed through the course of our nation's history. The book is accompanied by a beautiful American flag the child may call their own.
