

Finding himself caught in the mediocre sludge of life, Nash doesn't know what to do anymore. He's got a girlfriend, a stable job and a loving family, but he's not happy. Life just isn't what he thought it would be. But before he even has the chance to sort himself, to figure out what's missing, he's abducted – and not by humans. From that point on, his life is changed forever. Will he ever make it home? He's not sure, but he's going to try, if not for himself but the family left devastated by his perplexing disappearance. Warning: coarse language, a mild sex scene, drug references and violence
