

Lily Strand wakes in the hospital remembering nothing of her life before that moment. Thrust back into a life she can't recall, clips of memory start to surface leaving more questions than answers. Who was it that rescued her from the blast that killed two and left her clueless? Why does Nathan Stark, a boy that she reportedly doesn't like, seem to be the only one being completely honest with her? And why is she remembering things that no one else remembers even happening?
