A Member: I have not heard the resolution read yet. The President: I might suggest, before we go further, that in my recommendations to this Association I have covered the ground, though not quite extensively, and I hope you will report favorably upon it. I just suggest that as a thought to you. Mr. Williams: I move, in lieu of the vote just suggested, that this matter be referred to the committee to be named on the Presidents address. (Voted.) The Secretary: I have a communication from the Committee of 100 of the American Association for the Advance of Science on National Health. June 6, 1910. Mr. John B. Ebbs, Waterbury, Conn. Dear Sir:--Will you not lay before your convention the copy sent to you under separate cover of Senators Owens speech, which includes a copy of his bill for the establishment of a National Department of Health, and endeavor to secure an endorsement of the same? Although this subject may not seem to have any very close relation to your meeting, yet, as health is a universal interest, where and when they can thoughtful men and women, we believe, will want to add their influence to the growing movement for a National Department of Health. If State Departments of Agriculture have become stronger and more useful because of one central efficient department and cooperation, so would public health officials and state municipal boards of health render better service to the people If there were In Washington a National Department of Health. The movement that we represent has had the endorsement of Ex-President Cleveland, Ex-President Roosevelt, Mr. Bryan, President Taft, numerous...
