

Matthew is in his final semester of college and only months away from his big graduation day. That's if he doesn't fail his symbolic logic course. And considering he was pulling an F average, it looked like that would be the case. With nothing to lose and everything to gain, Matthew goes and begs his educated and devastatingly handsome Professor Mitchell for any possible extra credit that could boost him to a passing grade. It's up to Matthew to show how much he really wants to pass this class. Can he show the professor how serious he is--hard and without protection
