

Betsie Wolfe is a small-town girl who leaves her cozy little life for a job in the big city, never expecting to become a witness to a murder or face vicious threats. Detective Jonah Pigg is attracted to Betsie's green eyes and small frame when he arrives on the scene of the murder. When the threats begin, he takes her into his home under the protection of the three Piggs who own the Pigg Detective Agency. It will take all his detective work to keep her safe from the killer. Passion has a way of igniting when people are under stressful situations, and lust leads Betsie and Jonah into each other's arms. But is their relationship a matter of desire, or is it something more?
