

Founded in 1733, Savannah, Georgia is rich in history, charm, and beauty. Its varied architecture, impeccable restaurants, and friendly folks are what lures in the curious visitor and keeps them coming back year after year. Also known as The Hostess City, Savannah begs to be discovered and experienced, from the first step taken inside the historic district, to the first sight of live oak trees draped in Spanish moss, to the first encounter with someone saying yall, to the first taste of a praline from a River Street candy store. Savannah boasts natural and historic aesthetics, southern accents, and genuine hospitality. It remains one of the most desirable locations to visit in America, and theres no wonder why.
