

To Whom It May Concern: Teen Girls are the center of the universe and a large part of our future generation. It is only right that we guide them in the right direction. The direction of self-respect, self worth, self-sufficiency, etc... What better way to do this then to have a compilation of To Whom It May Concern letters from the past 3 volumes which involves controversial subjects; and now introducing eating disorders that affect self-esteem in our young girsl. Please be inspired and have the opportunity to discuss some of these issues in this special compilation edition of Saving Our Daughters.
