

When Anna Moonstone has a brutal tryst with her boss, her boyfriend abruptly dumps her. Humiliated, she quits her job and accepts an offer for an internship at the Thornton Fifth Avenue flagship store in New York. She's immediately made to feel welcome by her handsome and charming colleague Scott Harris and they become fast friends. And more. But in spite of the growing attraction, Anna can't resist to throw herself into the New York club scene, and promptly fall prey to notorious ladies' man Ty de Montesquieu. Little does she know that her every move is being observed by Scott, who is not who he says he is. When Scott meets Anna, he falls for her hard. The fact that she's damaged goods doesn't stop him from pursuing her. But when a date with Ty turns deadly, he'll have to dig deep to save her, both from the clutches of his arch-nemesis and from herself. Can Anna accept the love of a good man? Or will her self-destructiveness destroy this final chance at true love? Please note that this is a work of dark romance and contains graphic descriptions of sexual activity and graphic language. It is intended for mature readers aged 18 and over only. Also note that this novel contains themes of violence and mature situations that may upset some readers.
