

Camille Palme's only expectations in life were to serve and die. That was what her organization expected of her, and that is all she expected of herself. At least until she became Inspired by the music of the violin, and fell in love. When Camille is chosen as a participant in a game of life and death against another assassin, with her freedom as the reward, it all sounds too good to be true. But when met by an unexpected encounter with someone she holds dear, she unwillingly turns into another person, and the woman she thought she knew all along, turns out to be no more than a facade masking a much larger, dormant truth. Change was happening, and in a moment where one mistake could be the death of her, it couldn't come at a worst moment. Camille always had her priorities in order, but now, she wasn't so sure about herself, and it frightened her.
