

This playbook breaks down the spread offense as it was implemented in 2008. It explains alignment, formation, motion, cadence and how I broke down the defense. It then proceeds in showing the run game, pass protection, passing game and how I labeled everything into code names and signals. In the final few pages it talks about how to call, game planning and then gives the complete chart on how to signal each piece without having to look through the entire manual to get each signal. This offense was ran as a hurry-up no-huddle offense. The kids loved it. And it was fun to coach.
