The Goddess of Bondage is the fourth of The Boudoir Series of erotic stories featuring Syria and her photography studio adventures. Learn more about the series at starlacole.blogspot.com Story length: 20,000 words/75 pages. Excerpt from Goddess of Bondage: A gong sounded from somewhere, and all three bound girls were lowered. Syria stayed near her friend, not caring anymore if she was breaking tradition. Madam removed the ropes, letting Mia down slowly. All the submissives groaned in relief from the bindings. Syria rubbed her hands along the red marks. Mia opened her eyes, piercing with need, and this brought Syria over the edge, forgetting she was on a stage, that strange men sat only a few feet away, and that the Madam presided over them like a statue, disapproving and stern. Syria focused on Mia, who sat up and untied Syrias halter. The gossamer fabric fluttered away. Syria embraced her as Mia pushed her down, back to the familiar, her friend and lover. She kissed the red marks, and her tongue could feel the groove of the indentions. My Mia, she whispered on her skin. But Mia was impatient and thrust against her, crying out. The music came down to a soft undertone so the room could hear. The attention was intoxicating. Mias arms were weak and began to tremble. A man approached and slid a soft length of silk along her rib cage and her hips, quickly tying a simple cradling suspension that took her weight off, looping it through the dangling hook above. Mia relaxed and now swung freely over Syria, nipping at her ribs and exposed breasts, moving down to tug on the skirt. Syria lost her concentration and realized where she was, lying on a stage in a room full of strangers, her clothes coming off before them all.
