

When Claire Mayfield suddenly finds herself the new heir of a property that has lain vacant for over one hundred years, she becomes leery of the rumors of the hauntings from the three young children who were said to have been murdered there. As Claire explores the manor, she discovers her great uncles apothecary and traveling medicine show from the late 1800s, and even stumbles upon clues that could help her solve her ancestors one hundred-year-old murder-mystery; all with a little help from a mischievous young girl who has been dead for over one hundred years.
