

Spain is a popular destination for people considering a home abroad, a holiday retreat, for retirement or as an investment. Many regions have an ideal climate all year round, and this is a major attraction. There may be great weather nearly all year round in Spain, but getting the right information and advice before deciding to live there is crucial. This book deals with the detail of moving to Spain in a practical, straightforward style. All the information is clearly laid out and every aspect is covered, from preparing to leave and settling in, to health and welfare and retirement.
