 What if a young female knight is promoted to be the Queens bodyguard on an important mission? Why her? And what exactly is the Queen hiding? Its time for change! In a country with a cursed justice system, two women; the mysterious Queen Artride and her loyal bodyguard, Tirsas, set out on a secretive, perilous quest. They must hurry as they only have three weeks to save Tirsas teenage brothers life, sentenced to hanging for a petty crime. The two very different women hope to find the one person, who might just be the only one powerful enough to be able to lift the terrible curse from their land and its people. But this sorceress is said to live somewhere deep within Dochas; the strange uncharted Magical Land from where no one returns...Artride and Tirsas are soon drawn to each other, but can their love ever be?
 Struggles and questions arise as things get increasingly more difficult along the way. Can they trust one another and the magical creatures they meet who seem to have their own problems?And more so; will they ever find the evil sorceress, and will she actually be willing to help them? If so... for what price?Enter the world that is The Queens Curse and cling to Artride and Tirsas to experience a mind-blowing, heart gripping psychological fantasy drama where nothing is certain.
 Its a great fantasy read with a lot more depth and strengths than I had expected. Very good. -- ChristopherFisherBooks TOP500 Reviewer
