

A New York Times Bestselling Author Good girl Jane Preston is getting ready for her annual July ritual when her madcap cousin Molly bursts into her office with a crazy scheme. It seems Mollys up for a promotion -- or a firing -- at her newspaper job if she doesnt get an impressive scoop immediately. Jane agrees to take Mollys place at a beachfront retreat for bigshots who might recognize Molly from her disastrous stint as a Washington intern. Jane gains admittance on the arm of an insufferably nerdy reporter named John Patrick Romanowski. What she doesnt know is that her escort is none other than bestselling author J. P. Roman. Before long, Janes up to her neck -- and just as she begins to see something special behind J.P.s disguise, she stumbles across a story that could make her sizzling summer adventure too hot to handle.
