

Once upon a time an angel fell in love with a mermaid. And the god of the sea cast a curse. When Caleb Wood accepted his celestial heritage, he was given a gift from the dying sea king, a way to protect the girl he loves. But Gia still fights her connection to Erica, the girl bound to Caleb by the Angel of Chaos. Caleb's new ability hasn't been strong enough to break the link. Caleb faces two choices. He must decide if he will accept his heritage and fulfill a prophecy that will wipe away his memories of Gia. The laughter, the kisses, every single touch and emotion they have shared will be gone forever. Or he can stay, help her fight to save her home and live happily ever after. But doing so will ignite the prophecy and threaten everyone Caleb and Gia loves. Under the new sea king's rule, Gia's people are divided, and she doesn't know who to trust. Gia must find a way to alter the prophecy, even if doing so means betraying the new king. Friends will become enemies. Gia and Caleb's love faces the ultimate test. Will Caleb give in to the darkness? Or will he fall into the arms of the girl he loves? Find out in the explosive conclusion to the Seraphine Trilogy.
