

This book is about Tourism and also you can read history in it. When I started gathering information about this book my intentions were to just write about the places, which attract tourists from all over the world to Pakistan and the places that I had seen myself. Slowly, when my search came to its peak our history opened my eyes about whatâ€™s buried deep in our lands. This is my small contribution to acknowledge the great things, which are still to be discovered by future generations. The whole world must know about our rich culture, which other nations followed and adapted to their own cultures.
