

Dramatized by Aurand Harris. An exciting theatrical adaptation of Robert Louis Stevensons novel. 1 woman, 12 men (some roles may be doubled), in 5 scenes or 3 suggested sets. 18th century English costumes. Along with young Jim Hawkins, the audience sails aboard the HMS Hispanola for a daring adventure on Treasure Island. In a conflict between good and evil, Jim courageously faces danger, learns that evil can masquerade as good, and matures from a boy into manhood. All of Stevensons famous characters are aboard -- the good doctor and the Squire, the sinister Blind Pew, the marooned Ben Gunn, the infamous Long John Silver, and a colorful crew of buccaneers. Young audiences will thrill to the lightning adventure, exotic settings, sea chanteys, and the salty pirate dialogue that makes this new dramatization of Jim Hawkins adventures irresistible in the hands of Aurand Harris, Americas master playwright for young people.

Hi, I am nine and therefore my review might not be very helpful. Treasure Island is a story about a boy aboard a ship, searching for Captain Fint's lost treasure. X marks the spot of a bona fide festive treat! Treasure Island is the answer to every adventure-starved child's prayers: a racy, pacy, tough-as-old-boots adaptation. Working in partnership with the National Theatre, these playscripts bring the theatre alive in the classroom. Each play has been carefully.
