Uncle Kawaiolas Dream: A Hawaiian Story is an `A`ina-based story that focuses on lo`i kalo restoration on Maui. Uncle Kawaiola tells his dream story to his niece Naupaka, and nephew Ho`A`ala. Based on his passion to restore his great grandfather Nahau s `A`ina, Uncle Kawaiola faces challenges that he overcomes based on Hawaiian cultural values of laulima and ohana. He teaches his niece and nephew that achieving a goal requires the help of one s family and community, and he learns from his mentor Kalima that taking small steps toward a goal is the way to reach it. The story is inspiring, healing, and grounding. It teaches the importance of lokahi and paepae that create good, strong principles. This story will help all readers reconnect with Hawai`i and Hawaiian culture. Although a children s story, Uncle Kawaiolas Dream can be enjoyed by young and old alike.
