

He was her guardian, the duke of darkness-and desire. She tried to drive him away from Arden Hall. Instead, Isabelle Montgomery was charmed by the rakehell John Saint Germain, the handsomest--and most dangerous--man shed ever met. He said she was his ward, and hed come to sweep her off to London and a proper debut. Isabelles guardian angel had promised a dark prince would be sent by destiny to save her. But Saint Germain's scorching appraisal suggested shed need protection from him. No woman could refuse the dashing John Saint Germain, Duke of Avon, arrogant and dark as sin. Saint Germain had known betrayal and vowed no woman would claim his heart again. But he hadnt reckoned on the innocent beauty who slammed the door in his face. Much against his will, hed agreed to become her guardian, to prepare her for Londons marriage market. But now he was determined to claim her as his own, oblivious of the enemies hed earned pursuing the woman who had become his heart, his soul, his destiny....
